- 19 fishermen so far!

Clawed frog removal

- Permitting process to start trapping
- Frogs a vector for diseases
 - Study on diseases transmitted by frogs to fish

Koke spawning observations

- Lots of kokes in streams! :)
- 486 observations so far!
 - 404 more than last yr
 - *not total fish count, same fish could've been observed more than once
 - 109 redds
 - Much more than expected- wasn't expected to be big year
- None collected for broodstock or supplementation yet
 - King Co. might need volunteers to run weirs
- Exciting bc supplementation strategy changed 4 yrs ago
 - Actively trying to collect dead fish
 - Hatchery fish thermally marked, can determine whether a particular strategy is working

Milfoil project- Dave can present findings at future meeting

eDNA survey- results out soon

Issaquah School District Providence Pt development

- Development near Laughing Jacobs crk, add impervious surfaces in watershed
- Received 175 negative comments
 - Emphasize impact of impervious surfaces and importance of buffers
- Hopefully can make them develop responsibly
- We should be ready to step in on that
- Snoqualmie tribe getting involved?

Salmon Watchers

- Winding down for the year
- Having app developed that should streamline reporting
 - Upload to cloud

Embrace-a-stream grant

- Jeff communicating with other nonprofits for fundraising
 - Gets other ppl involved with working with TU
 - Downside- ppl might think they're donating to other nonprofits when they're donating to TU
 - Add disclaimer that donations go to TU
- Once grant total reached, lots of flexibility about how $ is used
 - Jeff has lots of ideas
 - Outreach
 - 60ft Koke mural at Spuds Fish n' Chips?
 - Design still in progress
 - Community painting event in spring to go with this
 - Near Juanita Crk
 - Include TU in mural
- Fundraiser starts on 11/8
 - 8-14, 1wk
 - Start at midnight EST
- Important to get this out on social media
- Extra prize for most individual donations!
- Orvis matches us first $1k raised

New staff person for UWRP

- Extra person for outreach
- Need to close funding gap

All in the Water film

- Shooting Oregon section on Clackamas R next week
- Hoping to have trailer soon

Mark technically terming out in December, but staying another year due to COVID

- Will need new president and vp next year for sure
- Mark will probably take over fundraiser part after presidency
